A large green circle is positioned on the left side of the slide. Three green, succulent-like flowers are arranged vertically to the right of the circle. Thin green lines connect the right edge of the circle to each of the three flowers. In the bottom-left corner, there is a branch with several green leaves.

Alice could not help laughing at this, even in the midst of her tears. "Can YOU keep from crying by considering things?" She asked.

"That's the way it's done," the Queen said with great decision: "nobody can do two things at once, you know. Let's consider your age to begin with--how old are you?"

"I'm seven and a half exactly."

"You needn't say 'exactly,' " the Queen remarked: "I can believe it without that. Now I'll give YOU something to believe. I'm just one hundred and one, five months and a day."

"I can't believe THAT!" said Alice.

"Can't you?" the Queen said in a pitying tone. "Try again: draw a long breath, and shut your eyes."

Alice laughed. "There's no use trying," she said: "one CAN'T believe impossible things."

"I daresay you haven't had much practice," said the Queen. "When I was your age, I always did it for half-an-hour a day. Why, sometimes I've believed as many as six impossible things before breakfast. There goes the shawl again!"
