- (1) Duo Interpretation
- (2) Impromptu Speaking
- (3) Editorial Commentary

Speech competitors will NOT be able to compete in Debate due to schedule conflict. ALL SPEECHES AND PERFORMANCES MUST BE ORIGINAL WORKS. Any participants presenting speeches or performances found to be copied from existing or previously performed works will be automatically disqualified from the competition without refund.

General:

Ranking is a point-based process. Criteria for earning points are in the ballots provided.

=====

(1) Duo Interpretation (Duo):

Two competitors team up to deliver an 8-10-minute performance of a script written by the performers. Using off-stage focus, competitors convey emotion and environment through the relationships and interactions between characters through a variety of performance techniques. Performances must also include an introduction written by the students to contextualize the performance and state the title and author. Each partner plays a key role in developing the piece's characters, relationships, plot, and more during a duo interpretation. Duo interpretation allows for students to do humorous, dramatic, or pieces that combine both into the performance. Age, maturity, and school standards should all be considered when choosing a topic for a duo interpretation. No script is allowed on stage for this event.

(2) Impromptu Speaking (Solo):

The impromptu speech is a short narration on a topic unknown to the contestant until right before his performance. This is a short speech with a hooking introduction, logical development, and a good conclusion. Each participant draws three possible topics from the bowl. The speaker has 30 seconds to choose a subject and 1 minute to prepare his speech. The speech is 2 minutes; if he goes over 10 seconds or speaks for less than 2 minutes, he will be deducted 5 points.

An example of a prompt might be, "color affects how a person behaves."

(3) Editorial Commentary (Solo):

Editorial commentary is a scripted original speech which offers an analysis of and commentary on a current news event. The speaker must read from the manuscript and sit while delivering the speech. The time limit for this event is between 1:45 and 2:00 minutes. Students going under or over the time limit by more than 10 seconds will be deducted 3 speaker points. Script is allowed for this event and should be written before the tournament begins.
